THIS MONTH.....

100 YEARS AGO

Local: Gove was admitted to Trusham School (aged 3) - number on roll now 28. One day's Whitsun holiday. Ralph Howard was excluded because he was suffering from impetigo.

National: On June 5th, Lord Kitchener, Secretary of State for War, known for his image on 'Your country needs YOU' recruiting posters, died with 600 others, when their boat hit a mine off Orkney. The 12th June Whit Bank Holiday was abandoned.

International: The only major World War I naval clash, involving 100,000 men/250 ships, the Battle of Jutland (or Skagerrak) lasted just 72 hours, ending on June 1st. Britain lost more men (6784) and ships (14), than Germany but maintained control of the North Sea. Among the victims was 16 year old Jack Cornwell, who was posthumously awarded of the VC. In his memory, The Scouts Cornwell Award is given to Scouts under 20, who have shown courage and endurance under extreme conditions.

THE CRIDFORD INN

In time for summer - the Cridford Inn re-opens officially on Thursday 2nd June.

More information - menus, opening times etc - can be found at www.thecridfordinn.co.uk, which includes a mention of sherry at 6pm, after the afternoon's Trusham Royal Birthday Tea Party - a great way for the new owners and manager to introduce themselves to the village.

BROADBAND IN THE VALLEY

I have organised a presentation for Friday 3rd June at 7.30pm at the Teign Valley Community Hall. Matt Barrow (Senior Manager:

Connecting Devon & Somerset), wireless provider Airband (has the government contract to provide wireless broadband in our area), private provider Torbay Telecoms and Business Officers from TDC will be present. This presentation aims to give Teign Valley residents current information on government strategy re Broadband roll out and an overview of broadband provision currently on offer and plans for the future .

If you require more information please do not hesitate to contact me on 01626 852020.

Amanda Ford District Councillor

HAPPY BIRTHDAY MA'AM

Join our celebrations for the Queen's 90th birthday on Sunday 12th June

2.30-6pm in the Village Hall - birthday food including cream teas and cakes, as well as a loyal, celebratory toast. Why not dress for fun - a la Royal Garden Party? Adults £2.50, children £1.

Teas will be served 2.30 - 4pm, during which time there will be activities and games for children..

Don't forget the competitions:, judged after tea

Draw the Queen - for children: under 5s, 5-7, 8-12. Bring your picture or draw one during the afternoon;

Bring your home-made crown - for all: under 5s, 5-7, 8-12, 12-15, over 16s

Then of course - at 4.40pm, birthday cake accompanied by a toast to our longest-reigning monarch.

The afternoon's celebrations will finish with a Service of Thanksgiving, starting at 5.15pm in the churchyard

Tickets for what promises to be a delightful village - and also national event - can be bought from Pauline Booth, Ali Chadwick, Patsy Mudie, Angela Cameron or Helen Harding

QUIZ

With a little lateral thinking, minding their 'ps' and not clowning around, Brian, Mary, Pat and Terry won May's quiz and 'offered' to take responsibility for the quiz on Friday 17th June. Interrogation will begin at 7.30pm - with light refreshments to lessen the ordeal. All for £4 to raise funds for the village. Give it a go!

CHUDLEIGH & DISTRICT AMENITY SOCIETY

May's talk gave information about the National Coastal Watch Institution whose members using the principle of 'Spot, plot and report (to the Coastguard) are concerned with identifying and helping vulnerable vessels and individuals at sea and on the coast.

The subject of this month's talk, on 17th June, is "Devon's Torre Abbey" given by Dr Michael Rhodes curator of Torre Abbey for almost two decades.

SUMMER FUN x 3

1. MUSIC.....

POMP & POMPOSITIVITY: BEST OF BRITISH

On Saturday 18th June (Dunsford Village Hall) at 7.30pm and on Saturday 25th June (Teign Valley Community Hall) at 7.30pm, Dunsford Singers will present a programme featuring a concert version of Gilbert and Sullivan's Iolanthe and songs by Flanders and Swann, to give an evening of musical delights, wit and irony. Iolanthe (the 'fairy opera') is widely regarded as the most perfect of the G&S operettas. Full of amiable absurdities, it delivers hearty doses of satire in the direction of the political party system and the House of Lords. Proceeds will be donated to the mental health charity MIND, Exeter.

Tickets are available from 01647 252519 or at the door. £7 for adults, £3 for children (including refreshments). Booking for the Dunsford performance strongly advised.

2. A NEIGHBOURING FETE.....

The Doddi Fete will be held on Saturday 25th June from 12 till 3pm at Doddiscombsleigh Primary School in aid of the school & pre-school. Many traditional & fun stalls including bouncy castle, BBQ, bar, tea, cakes and a fabulous raffle!

3. AND DANCING.....

BARN DANCE

No barn - so what? Trusham and friends will still celebrate the solstice (only four days late) in style, with the help of Amber Fire Ceilidh

Band on Saturday June 25th from 6.30pm to 11pm

(music and dancing from 7pm),

Tickets on sale beforehand from Tricia (Lower Broomfield) and Lesley (the White House);

Adults £7.50, under 18s free.

To help the event go with a swing, volunteers are needed before, during and after:

- on the night - on the gate, to run the BBQ, to help with the bar;
- on Thursday 23rd June, at 7pm to deal with tents, chairs, tables etc;
- on Sunday 26th June, at 9.30am, to help dismantle tents and clear up.

Please let Tony Wheaton or Tricia Bird know as soon as possible if you are willing to assist.

LATER

THE FOLLIES OF LOVE

And all the old favourites including the Quiz and the 60s/70s Disco.

Information about the events and how to purchase tickets can be found on the website www.chudfest.co.uk

EARLIER

GREENER TEIGN

Those attending Greener Teign's AGM discussed George Marshall's video 'How to talk to a climate denier'. Further information about the organisation and its AGM can be found at www.greener-teign.org.uk

EXEVOX CONCERT

Not only did members of this accomplished chamber choir delight those attending their informal concert, in Trusham church, with a varied programme including Bach, Gershwin and Kalinnikov, their seemingly effortless renditions raised a very welcome £140 for church funds.

AND

A GIFT

We would like to give to each Trusham household a commemorative book entitled 'The Servant Queen and the King she serves', which focuses on the Queen's life of service and faith. If you would prefer not to receive a copy, please let Angela Cameron know by 8th June. Angela is funding this in memory of her mother Sheela who died, aged 95, on May 1st, and loved Trusham.
