BRAIN SPRING CLEAN - QUIZ

The February quiz was fun and fact-filled - though with fast-food failure for those of us who confuse their logos! The winning quartet, despite only half a serving of fast-food points, were the Upper Ts. Why not stir your hibernating minds before the clocks spring forward. In the Village Hall on Friday 17th March 7.30pm. £4 - includes light refreshments.

Tickets £10 + £7 from 01626870107/southdevonsingers@gmail.com/ticketsource.co.uk/southdevonsingers

CHUDLEIGH & DISTRICT AMENITY SOCIETY

Both our January talks were very successful. The second, "Magnificent Mires" was jointly hosted with Chudleigh Wild. The February talk "The building of Buckfast Abbey given by Mark Cottle, is to be followed by a Spring visit to the Abbey. On 17th March, "Footsteps of the Yarari", Ian Biles will tell us about a unique journey to the world's highest lake. This will follow our AGM at 7pm. When our Chairman will give his report and Officers and committee members will be elected. We had hoped have additional gravestones listed with English Heritage but a shortage of resources means that our gravestones are not considered sufficiently vulnerable to gain prioritisation and official protection. Nevertheless recording them has been very worthwhile exercise for which we thank Martin Fletcher and Andrew Turnbull. We now have a good record of who is buried in our churchyard.

BISHOP NICK

Bishop Nick (of Plymouth) attended a 'give thanks' workshop in Chudleigh Church with eight different primary schools from around the Moreton Deanery as part of his three day visit to the Moorland Area. The schools taking part in the workshop included;

Chudleigh, Blackpool, Bovey Tracey, Chudleigh Knighton, Ilsington, Ashburton, Widcombe. and Moretonhampstead.

The theme was to give thanks through numerous workshops in art, music, dance and drama activities. At the end of the day the children performed and presented their work in a collective worship session with Bishop Nick.

BISHOP SARAH

On a cosy evening in the Cridford, the room buzzed as 25 people gathered over a lovely simple supper. We came to hear Bishop Sarah Mullaney, Bishop of Crediton. What a lovely, down to earth, warm and caring person she is. She trained as a nurse and eventually became the Government's Chief Nursing Officer. With a slight change in direction in her vocation she was ordained in the Anglican Church in 2001. Now a Bishop, she brings with her experience of caring and of how politics and bureaucracy work. In many ways she didn't feel there had been that much of a change - she's still the same person with the same vocation to care for others. She said of herself, 'I'm a good civil servant. I can listen. I can respond appropriately.' She did respond very well to a variety of interesting questions. Our thanks go to the Cridford staff for their welcome and hard work. And at the end of the evening we expressed our thanks to Bishop Sarah for giving up her time to join us in Trusham.

LATER

DEMAIN (TOMORROW)

Already viewed by over 1.5 million people in France alone and winner of Best Documentary at the Cesar Awards (French Oscars), Tomorrow has had a huge impact. Produced by activist/ writer Cyril Dion and actress/director Mélanie Laurent, it tells of their search for solutions to the crisis humanity faces. It explores solutions to key issues - food, energy, transport, economics and education. It visits a wide range of projects and has boosted action. It is an antidote to the current sense of global despondency.

The Greener Teign screening will be at 7.30 in the Bowden Room, Teign Valley Community Hall on Wednesday 5th April. Tickets £3.50, on the door.

Panel members include younger and older people, men and women, and people with disabilities—in fact membership is monitored to make sure it represents the whole area, creating a 'mini-Teignbridge' that reflects the views of all the different people that exist around the district.
