THIS MONTH.....

100 YEARS AGO

Local: Two stained glass Memorial Windows were unveiled at Newton Abbot in memory of Lieut. A. E. Durham, R.N., lost at sea in March 1917, and his mother Mrs. Priscilla Durham who died in June 1917. His father, Rev W E Durham, Rector of Wolborough, became Trusham's Rector in 1919.

National: The government introduced compulsory rationing of sugar, butter, meat and beer. On 31st January, accidental collisions in misty Scottish waters led to the loss of 104 lives, 2 RN submarines and loss and damage to another 5 RN warships International: US President Wilson issued his peace treaty proposals. T.E. Lawrence (of Arabia) continued to aid the Arab Revolt by commanding an attack on Turkish troops, defeating an entire battalion.

NEW YEAR NEW QUIZ

The Christmas quiz was very hotly contested, with all the teams scoring highly and within 10 points of each other. The winners have already got their thinking caps on for the January quiz, which is on Friday 19th January at 7.30pm in the village hall. £4 a head to include a glass of wine, a light supper and an evening of gentle brain testing.

EARLIER

CHRISTMAS FAYRE

Not only did the Fayre make a very welcome profit of £650 for village funds, it was also a time of festive fun with friends. Mistress-minded by Diana and Jaqui, last year's successful innovation of using both hall and church was continued. A popular visitor was Father Christmas. Varied activities kept us entertained (though a silent auction aimed at talkative Trusham folk might have seemed a bit ambitious!), while delicious refreshments, kept us sustained. The raffle prizes appeared to be endless and a thoroughly good time was had by all, thanks to Diana, Jaqui and those who volunteered to help them.

VILLAGE NATIVITY

So many helped to make our village Nativity Play a vivid and moving re-enactment of the events that occurred over 3000 miles away and over 2000 years ago. Angels and shepherds, wise men and a cruel ruler, soldier, publican, story teller, a blessed babe and his parents fired the imagination of the watching crowd. Thanks must go to Pat - instigator/organiser, set enablers Graham and Marjool, Pete and Tony, sustenance providers Steve and Paul, Helen, Angela and Norman, musical support from Mick. Star of the whole event was, of course, baby Lucas.

CRIDFORD CAROLLING

Thank you to everyone who came to "Carols in the Pub". It really was a rousing occasion. Many thanks to Dan and Julia for their musical accompaniment and keeping us all in tune. Many thanks to the local suppliers who donated raffle prizes.

A magnificent amount of money was raised: Donations to THAT - Teignbridge Homeless Action Today - £76 Raffle for Trusham Church - £93

Jane Brooks

CRIB SERVICE

Scenes from Trusham's final contribution to Christmas preparation and celebration, organised by Helen.

AND

THE CASE OF THE DISAPPEARING...

tea towels. There used to be an adequate supply of tea towels in the Village Hall which has dwindled to two or three. If any kind person took them home to wash them and forgot to return them, please put them in the kitchen drawer as future washer-uppers may have need of them.

BIN REMINDER

Don't forget that the next refuse collections will be later than usual:

Tuesday 26th December - not until Thursday 28th

Tuesday 2nd January - not until Thursday 4th

Tuesday 9th January - not until Wednesday 10th.

Then back to normal until.....
