THIS MONTH.....

Local: Portuguese pit prop cutters, employed at Chudleigh Camp, were charged with maliciously wounding Matthews and James Cronan, Canadian Forestry Corps

National: The Representation of People Act entitled women over 30, who were occupiers of property or married to occupiers, to vote. Lord Clifford of Chudleigh opposed female suffrage, believing women to be guided by love and sympathy rather than by duty.

International: The British Government made a declaration to King of the Hejaz reaffirming their pledges as to freeing the Arab peoples.

Come to something a little different - a soup lunch Give up something - a donation in thanks for your lunch to aid the new work going on at 1 The Square, Chudleigh to fund both a Citizens' Advice Bureau and the Christians Against Poverty initiative to help people learn how to manage their finances better. Both projects aim to help people in our locality.

You are welcome to any or all of the lunches - though please try to let the hosts know if you'd like to come so that they have an idea of how many to cater for!
