THIS MONTH.....

100 YEARS AGO

Local: Inspector's Report on Religious Instruction at Trusham School: The children are fortunate in having some excellent Bible pictures....The general character of the work; discipline and tone are very satisfactory.

National: A proposal from Australian journalist, Edward Honey, that 'a respectful silence to remember those who had given their lives in the War' was published 8th May in The London Evening News. It was brought to the attention of George V, who in November issued a proclamation calling for a two minute silence.

International: May 6th 3rd British-Afghan War began, its August ceasefire resulting in the Afghans regaining control over its foreign affairs and Britain recognizing Afghanistan's independence.

BISHOP'S VISIT TO TRUSHAM

The Bishop of Exeter will be coming to the Cridford Inn on Wednesday 1st May. This will be a chance to meet the Bishop over dinner and drinks. He will also be speaking, on the topic of inclusivity within the Church of England. Clearly this is a thorny subject. There will be a supper before the talk and a menu will be advised to those wishing to attend. If you are interested, please let us know. For booking or further details: Dan Metcalfe, church warden, 01626 859602 or danjmetcalfe@hotmail.com

LOCAL ELECTIONS

Trusham's polling station in the Village Hall will be open on local election day
Thursday May 2nd 7am-10pm.

LOCAL SILVER SCREENINGS

DUNCHIDEOCK FILM NIGHT

Dunchideock Village Hall

Friday 10th May at 7.45pm

£3.50 includes coffee and nibbles

Their Finest: this film Starring Gemma Arterton and Bill Nighy, is a romantic comedy, but with an edge. It is set at the time of Dunkirk and tells the story of a young secretary who joins a film production company making propaganda films aimed at boosting the country's morale. In particular, she finds herself researching a film based on the experiences of two sisters who took their own small boat across to France.

CHUDLEIGH FILM SOCIETY

Woodway Room Chudleigh Town Hall;

Friday 10th May; 7.15pm for 8pm.

Our final film this season based on a true story, 'Hidden Figures' (CertPG)121 min, tells the inspiring story of three African-American women who worked at NASA during the 1960s Space Race. As well as being mathematicians they had to 'jump through hoops' at NASA during the era of racial segregation. This is a very uplifting film of their plight! It stars Taraji P Henson, Octavia Spencer, Janelle Monáe and Kevin Costner and has been kindly sponsored by a Chudleigh Knighton resident.

Non-members £6; refreshments on sale beforehand.

LATER

TRUSHAM CHURCH OPEN MEETING

Trusham Church is holding an open meeting with Diocesan Adviser Sam Upham on 4th June 7pm in the church. The purpose is to plan the church's year to include services and events that the community (religious and secular) are interested in and inspired by. We would be really grateful for any suggestions as to how the church can best serve Trusham and its villagers. What does the church do well that you would like to see more of? Equally, what does it not presently do that you might like it to ... or what does it do badly? Do tell us - we won't be offended - honest! If you would like to hear the discussion, please come to the church. If you would rather not attend but wish to make suggestions, please contact Dan Metcalfe, church warden, on 01626 859602 or danjmetcalfe@hotmail.com; or leave anonymous comments in the 'comments box' on the hymn book stand just inside the church door. This event is open to all and there will be refreshments served.
